Vision

We aim to be a key food ingredients solution partner to global food companies by upholding impeccable standards in quality, sustainability, consistency and value added support services.

Mission

- Source Raw Material Responsibly
- Make use of our expertise in market intelligence, robust quality and R & D systems.
- Work as a partner with global food giants by aligning with their objectives and values.
- Have an unflinching attitude towards food quality and safety.

The World of OrganoNutri Recipe Spice Mixes is much beyond our factory's boundary. We produce hundreds of different kind of spice mixess & ingredients procured though our sustainable sourcing program. Each of our product has a tale of its own. Let us explore what goes behind the scenes to make all this possible.

Infrastructure

Our processing units have facilities of complete in-house spice processing and food solution facility which enables us to provide the best of quality, from the first stage to the last.

We have always been pro-active in adopting the latest technologies and we were among the first few to introduce

UV-C sterilized spices in India.

Sourcing

Sourcing is the back bone of any Agro-Processing industry. Over the years we have gained expertise in sourcing the right ingredient at the right time & price with utmost focus on Quality & Safety.

In tune with our vision, we have been developing sustainable sourcing channels, ensuring complete traceability of the crops. Dealing with over 100 SKUs our approach is that of assuring Quality right from the source which helps us in complying to the stringent International Quality Norms.

Quality Assurance

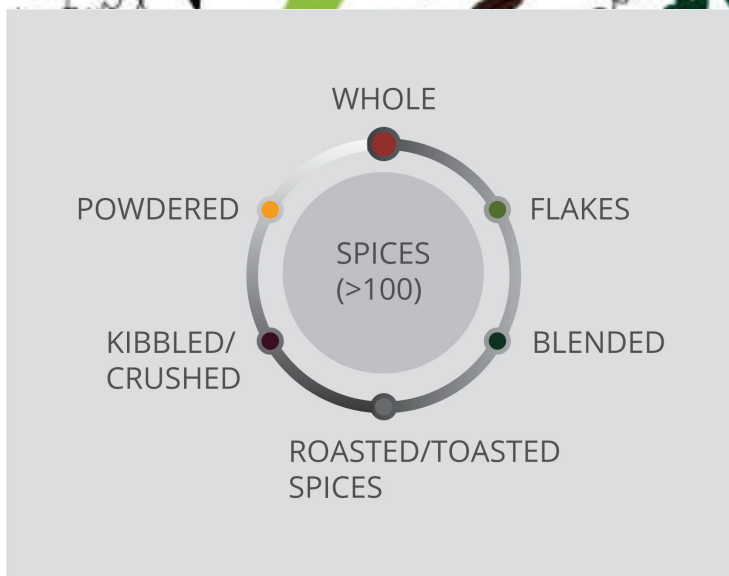

We believe that quality is the responsibility of one and all and shouldn't be compromised under any circumstances.

At OrganoNutri, it begins from procurement, goes right through the processing to the packaging of the finished product.

We cater to a few Indian and overseas brands with a focus on Quality Assurance from farm to fork. We put to use our in-house as well as external quality testing capabilities for our entire product range to ensure that the finished product is of the highest quality.

In the quest for quality, we adopt the following approaches to ensure uncompromised quality.

1. Superior quality products and services
2. Continuous process improvement
3. High-quality ingredients from consistent sources.

Spices & Herbs

We offer a wide range of whole, powdered and processed spices and herbs with quality, credibility and consistency matching global standards for microbial load, pesticide residues, mycotoxins, extraneous materials and other contaminants like illegal dyes, etc. The processed spices can also be a blend of various combinations as per customer's requirement and recipe. We have in-house UV-C sterilization capabilities for handling both whole or powdered spices and herbs.
